applications](http://publicaccess.northumberland.gov.uk/online-applications)

This proposal, if accepted, will have a significant impact on the whole village and the Parish Council urges all residents of Cornhill on Tweed, and other interested members of the public, to make their views known by either:

- making a submission on the NCC site referred to above;
- sending an email to:
planningcomments@northumberland.gov.uk;
or
- writing to: Northumberland County Council, North Area \(Planning\)Team, County Hall, Morpeth, NE61 2EF .

The date for submissions has been extended to close of business Friday, 8th December 2017.

Our Councillor, Roderick Lawrie, has given his assurance that the opinions of villagers pro and against will be taken into consideration when the proposal comes before the Planning Committee.
